IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of one hundred twenty (120) months, with credit for time served.

The Court recommends that Defendant be incarcerated in a facility on the east coast of the United States and that he be allowed to participate in the 500-hour intensive drug treatment program.

The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and cost of incarceration. The Court will waive the fine and cost of incarceration in this case.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

RETURN

I have executed this judgment as follows:

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. Within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime, shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court, and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days of placement on supervised release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter as directed by the probation officer.

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 4135a(d)(1) and 10 U.S.C. § 1565(d), which requires mandatory DNA testing for federal offenders convicted of felony offenses, the defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

Defendant shall participate in a drug/alcohol treatment program under the guidance and supervision of the United States Probation Officer and, if able, contribute to the cost of services for such treatment.

The defendant shall not own, posses or have under his control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, real or personal, residence, place of business or employment, and/or vehicle(s) at the request of the United States Probation Officer. The defendant shall permit confiscation and/or disposal of any material considered contraband or any other item which may be deemed to have evidentiary value related to violations of supervision.
